Caruso Inc. Honored as Fast 55 Company

Cincinnati, Ohio – The Cincinnati Business Courier has selected Caruso Inc as a 2011 Fast 55 award winner. The Fast 55 award recognizes Greater Cincinnati’s fastest growing, privately held companies. Caruso has grown revenues 33% the past two years and is on pace for another 15% growth this year.

“We are honored to be chosen for this award, says Jeff Busch, Chief Operating Officer. Five years ago we set in motion a diversification plan and have been blessed with new business opportunities and partnerships that will continue to grow our business for the next five years and beyond”, said Busch.

Founded in 1932, Caruso Inc. is a privately held storage, distribution, and re-pack company headquartered in Cincinnati, OH with a second location in Ephrata, PA. Jim and Steve Caruso now own the company that their grandfather Sam Caruso founded 79 years ago. For three generations, Caruso has been re-packing and distributing a variety of products, primarily produce, throughout a 12 state region. Visit www.carusologistics.com for more information.
