Caruso Inc. Honored as Rising Star Company

Cincinnati, Ohio – The Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber in conjunction with Deloitte Consulting and The Cincinnati Enquirer have selected Caruso Inc as a “Rising Star” on their annual list of the Top 100 privately owned Cincinnati businesses. This award recognizes four companies that are on the fast track to qualifying for the Top 100 list.

“We are honored to be chosen for this award, says Jeff Busch, Chief Operating Officer. Five years ago we set in motion a diversification plan and have been blessed with new business opportunities and partnerships that will continue to grow our business for the next five years and beyond”, said Busch.

As part of the marketing effort to re-introduce Caruso’s third party logistics business segment, the newly redesigned website www.carusologistics.com has been introduced this week as well.

Founded in 1932, Caruso Inc. is a privately held storage, distribution, and re-pack company headquartered in Cincinnati, OH with a second location in Ephrata, PA. Jim and Steve Caruso now own the company that their grandfather Sam Caruso founded 78 years ago. For three generations, Caruso has been re-packing and distributing a variety of products, primarily produce, throughout a 12 state region.
